

Hydrafacial Announces Video Poster Abstract Presentation at the 2024 American Society for Dermatologic Surgery's Annual Meeting (ASDS): Hydrafacial enhances the outcomes of non-ablative laser and IPL treatments

Oct 17, 2024

LONG BEACH, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Oct. 17, 2024-- The Beauty Health Company (NASDAQ:SKIN), home to flagship brand Hydrafacial™, announced today that a video poster abstract presentation on the efficacy and safety of Hydrafacial treatments combined with non-ablative fractional laser and intense pulsed light (IPL) full-face treatments will be featured at the American Society for Dermatologic Surgery (ASDS) meeting in Orlando, Florida from October 17-20, 2024.

"This presentation on the clinical efficacy and safety of Hydrafacial treatments combined with non-ablative fractional laser or IPL full-face treatments represents a significant milestone for Hydrafacial," said Marla Beck, Chief Executive Officer of BeautyHealth. "Although Hydrafacial treatments are incredibly effective on their own, providers frequently report that they complement other aesthetic treatments perfectly. Now, scientific data will validate what providers have observed in their treatment rooms for years, introducing a new compelling Hydrafacial treatment protocol for those in the medical field."

The following data will be presented:

Title: A Randomized, Split-face, Prospective, Study to Assess the Efficacy and Safety of Hydradermabrasion after 1927nm Non-ablative Fractional Laser or Intense Pulsed Light Full-Face Treatments

Presenting Author: Michael Abrouk, MD

Format: Video Abstract

- Highlights the synergistic effects of Hydrafacial when combined with non-ablative laser and IPL treatments.
- Hydrafacial not only delivers exceptional results as a standalone treatment, but it also helps enhance the overall appearance of skin quality, hydration, and the outcomes of other advanced procedures.
