Explanatory Note

Vesper Healthcare Acquisition Corp. (the “Company”) is filing this Current Report on Form 8-K/A (this “Amended 8-K”) to correct a typographical error in the Company’s Current Report on Form 8-K filed on April 26, 2021 (the “Original 8-K”).

Item 8.01. Other Events.

In the Original 8-K, the Company disclosed certain changes that it has calculated, on a preliminary unaudited basis, would have resulted to the Company’s (i) audited balance sheet dated October 2, 2020 related to its initial public offering and (ii) audited financial statements for the period from inception (July 8, 2020) through December 31, 2020, from the classification of its private placement warrants and public warrants as a derivative liability pursuant to the Staff Statement (as defined in the Original 8-K).

The Company is filing this Amended 8-K solely to correct a typographical error contained in the table included in Item 8.01 of the Original 8-K under the caption “Balance sheet as of December 31, 2020” under the column “As Adjusted, Reflecting Liability Treatment,” as follows: “Class A Common Stock Subject to Possible Redemption” is $376,489,130, not $(65,646,665). The correct figures are shown in the table below:

	As Previously Reported	Adjustments (Unaudited)	As Adjusted, Reflecting Liability Treatment
Balance sheet as of October 2, 2020

Basic and diluted net income per share, Common stock subject to possible redemption	(0.00)	(0.00)	(0.00)

Except as otherwise expressly noted herein, this Amended 8-K does not modify or update in any way the disclosures presented in the Original 8-K.

Forward Looking Statements

This Current Report may contain “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the “safe harbor” provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. The expectations, estimates and projections of the businesses of the Company or Edge Systems LLC d/b/a The HydraFacial Company (“HydraFacial”) may differ from their actual results and consequently, you should not rely on these forward-looking statements as predictions of future events. Words such as “expect,” “estimate,” “project,” “budget,” “forecast,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “plan,” “may,” “will,” “could,” “should,” “believes,” “predicts,” “potential,” “continue,” and similar expressions are intended to identify such forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements include, without limitation, expectations with respect to future performance of the Company or HydraFacial and anticipated financial impacts of the proposed transaction, the satisfaction of the closing conditions to the proposed transaction and the timing of the completion of the proposed transaction.

These forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance, conditions or results, and involve significant risks and uncertainties, that could cause the actual results to differ materially from the expected results. Most of these factors are outside of the control of the Company and HydraFacial and are difficult to predict. Factors that may cause such differences include, but are not limited to: (1) the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstances that could give rise to the termination of the Merger Agreement and the proposed transactions contemplated therein; (2) the outcome of any legal proceedings that may be instituted against the parties following the announcement of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated therein; (3) the inability to complete the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including due to the failure to obtain approval of the stockholders of the Company or other conditions to closing in the Merger Agreement; (4) the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstance that could give rise to the termination of the Merger Agreement or could otherwise cause the transaction to fail to close; (5) the receipt of an unsolicited offer from another party for an alternative business transaction that could interfere with the proposed transaction; (6) the inability to obtain or maintain the listing of the post-acquisition company's common shares on Nasdaq following the proposed transaction; (7) the risk that the proposed transaction disrupts current plans and operations of HydraFacial as a result of the announcement and consummation of the proposed transaction; (8) the ability to recognize the anticipated benefits of the proposed transaction, which may be affected by, among other things, competition, the ability of the combined company to grow and manage growth profitably, maintain relationships with customers and suppliers and retain its management and key employees; (9) costs related to the proposed transaction; (10) changes in applicable laws or regulations; (11) the possibility that HydraFacial may be adversely affected by other economic, business, and/or competitive factors; (12) the impact of the continuing COVID-19 pandemic on HydraFacial's business; (13) risks related to the matters set forth in the Staff Statement on Accounting and Reporting Considerations for Warrants Issued by Special Purpose Acquisition Companies, issued by the Staff of the SEC on April 12, 2021; and (14) other risks and uncertainties indicated from time to time in the definitive proxy statement of the Company, including those under "Risk Factors" therein, and other documents filed or to be filed with the SEC by the Company.

The Company cautions that the foregoing list of factors is not exclusive. You should not place undue reliance upon any forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date made. The Company and HydraFacial do not undertake or accept any obligation or undertaking to release publicly any updates or revisions to any forward-looking statements to reflect any change in their expectations or any change in events, conditions or circumstances on which any such statement is based.
